SAFE CRACKERS AT WORK.

On Wednesday night safe crackers effected an entrance to the depot at Hous- ton, on the Durham division of the Norfolk and Western railway, and blew the safe into smithereens. All the money obtained by the robbers amounted to only $55. The damage done to the safe amounted to more than the amount stolen. It is supposed that a couple of strangers, who were seen in the town for a few days previous to the robbery, did the work. Norfolk and Western detectives are now on the track of the robbers, and it is hoped that they will soon be under arrest.

TWO DELIVERIES DAILY.

Yesterday the present letter-carrier force of six men began two deliveries per day throughout the entire city. The schedule has been changed so that no collections are made from boxes except when deliveries are being made. The force goes on duty at 8 a. m. with the morning mail; then the mail which arrives in the afternoon is delivered, so that the people of the city are being served twice daily with their mails.

Polk Miller is coming to Roanoke.

POSTPONED.

The dramatic entertainment announced for Tuesday evening, to be given for the benefit of the Roanoke Public Library, will be postponed, as the management failed to secure the Academy for that evening. Another date will be announced.

SMITH SISTERS.

Speaking of the Smith Sisters' entertainment, L. H. Brugh said: "I heard the Smith Sisters when they were here last February, and can welcome them to our city again. The music and recitations excel anything of the kind I ever heard." Will appear at the Academy of Music March 1. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats at Johnson & Johnson's.

SET FOR TRIAL TO-DAY.

The case of L. Bachrach and others vs. the Trust, Loan and Safe Deposit Company, is set for trial in the circuit court to-day. Suit was brought to have the trustee, Lucian H. Cooke, administer the trust under the direction of the court. Counsel for the trustee joined in the petition, and Archie L. Payne, one of the commissioners of the court, was directed to examine into the affairs of the late bank on certain lines indicated in the decree of reference and report. This report was filed some days ago.

DEAD INFANT FOUND.

The body of a white infant was washed out of the sewer at Tinker Creek yesterday morning, and the sanitary inspector was instructed to have it buried.

THE TRACK CLEARED.

The track of the Norfolk and Western on the Kenova division is now open for traffic, all the washouts having been repaired. The Eggleston tunnel has been cleared, and trains will probably be running through on the Winston Salem division to day.

TO SEE RUSSELL.

The following prominent citizens of Pulaski City came down last night to see Sol Smith Russell: J. F. McNew, A. T. Pooner, Judge Watson, T. M. Barnett, F. A. Giles, J. J. Tagg.

Serliner, Harper and St. Nicholas at Jack's.

STOLE A PICTURE.

Someone entered the office of Lanier Gray, on Campbell street, yesterday and stole a picture of his father, which had been setting on his desk for three years. Nothing else was disturbed and Mr. Gray cannot imagine why anyone would only steal the picture.

TAKEN TO RICHMOND.

B. C. Peters, one of the guards of the penitentiary at Richmond, passed through the city yesterday, having in charge two boys, who were sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary for robbery at the last term of the court in Giles county. He expected to get some prisoners here, but court had not adjourned.

Polk Miller to pay us a visit.

DEATHS IN SMYTHE COUNTY.

News has just been received of the death of Wm. L. Richardson, of Valley View, Smythe county, which occurred Wednesday and Miss Sallie Groseclose, mother of Jno. A. and Jas. A. Groseclose, of Marion, at her home in Marion on Thursday morning. Both of these were well known and highly respected citizens of Smythe county, and their death is universally deplored.

DEATH OF HARRY ALIFF.

Harry Aliff, aged 7 years and three months, died yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at the family residence, No. 25 Tenth avenue s. e., and will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the City Cemetery.

ELKS' ANNUAL BENEFIT.

The large crowd that attended the performance at the Academy last night was not only a tribute to the genius of Mr. Russell, but it also evidenced the popularity of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in our city. This order, with charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity as its watchwords, cannot be too highly recommended. Mr. Russell appeared in "A Bachelor's Romance," a delightful little comedy, bright and original in plan, and sparkling with wit and humor. The character of David Holmes seems made for him. It affords ample opportunity for that dry humor and tender, pathetic, unaffectedness for which Mr. Russell is so famous. G. W. Denham as Martin, the confidential servant, was quite life-like in his representations, and frequently brought down the house by his realistic acting. Arthur Forrest as Gerald Holmes, the base pleasure-seeker and wild society man, was also quite effective in his support. Alfred Hudson as Mulberry, and Miss Pitt as Miss Cleopatra, were both mirth-producing characters, who gave a well-rendered effect to the whole play. The other parts were well-taken, thus giving as a whole, a clever rendition of a most clever comedy. Mr. Russell's reappearance will be welcomed by all lovers of true art.

Polk Miller is coming soon.

THE SCHEME ABANDONED.

The action of Winston in dropping from the proposed new baseball league, and the failure of the efforts to secure a team in Lynchburg, will make it impossible to organize a league for the approaching season. A representative of The Times talked with Charlie Mitchell on the subject yesterday, and he said that after learning that both of the above named cities had decided not to join the league, that nothing was left for him to do but to drop the matter. Lovers of baseball in this city and section regret this very much, but all must agree that Mr. Mitchell has done everything that could be done in the matter, and that the lack of success is from no fault of his. He has visited all the cities of the proposed league, and done a great deal of hard work in the interest of the scheme.

TAKEN TO LYNCHBURG.

The remains of J. W. Wright were taken by his family to Lynchburg yesterday for burial. Mr. Wright was formerly a citizen of Lynchburg, but had lived here for a number of years. He was the father of Manager Wright of the Bell Telephone Exchange, and had been a resident of Roanoke for several years.

HORSE STOLEN.

N. J. Watts, the gardener, living on Franklin road, about two miles from town, had his horse and all the meat he had in his smokehouse stolen a few nights ago. He has no clue whatever to the thief.

Who will hear Polk Miller?

DEATH OF GEN. ELLIOTT.

A telegram was received yesterday from Lynchburg by Rev. J. C. Dinwiddie, pastor of Bethany Presbyterian Church, announcing the death of Gen. Wyatt M. Elliott in that city. He was clerk of the United States court at Lynchburg, and at one time represented Appomattox in the State legislature. The remains will be taken to Buckingham on Saturday for interment, and Mr. Dinwiddie will leave for Lynchburg to-day to conduct the funeral services.

AN ENTERTAINMENT.

East Roanoke entertainment to night in the audience room of the East Roanoke Baptist Church. An entertainment will be given for the benefit of this church by the Allegheny Mandolin, Guitar and Dramatic Association. The popularity of these entertainments in the past will insure a large attendance. A bright and spicy programme has been arranged, consisting of choruses, instrumental music and a mirth producing comedy.

STOLEN.

From the office of the Roanoke Street Railway a double-barrel shot gun, made by the National Arms Company, weight about 7 1 2 pounds; has crack in wood on right side of triggers; slight dent in under side of each barrel about the middle; right hammer is loose and does not match the other. Suitable reward for its return, or information leading to its recovery. Room 105 Terry Building.

Mangus & Paynter, the Commerce street shoe dealers, are offering some rare bargains in special lines of ladies' and gents' shoes.

Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Ira W. Kimmel will deliver the third in his series of four addresses at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Sunday at 4 o'clock p. m. Subject: "Is Religion Played Out?" All men are cordially invited.

The attendance and interest in the association Bible classes are very encouraging. The classes meet each Thursday evening. Members, or others desiring to avail themselves of the advantages of systematic study of God's Word are invited to investigate.

Look out for Polk Miller.

ALL QUIET AROUND TOWN.

The police reported not a single arrest last night. Not even a drunk and disorderly. This is something quite unusual and speaks well for the good behavior of the citizens.

NEXT ATTRACTION.

The next attraction at the Academy of music will be the Chicago Marine Band on March 3.

ST. JAMES ARRIVALS.

A large crowd of people from various points were registered last night. Among them were: J. E. Watkins, Bluefield; Frank Kinch, New Castle; J. N. Williams, New York; J. R. Armond, Palmyra, N. Y.; J. R. Madon, Rocky Mount; J. A. Whitlock, Pulaski; L. F. Beerin, Memphis.

VERY SPEEDY BOAT.

Norfolk, Feb. 25.—Torpedo boat No. 6 arrived here to night at 8 o'clock after a remarkable run of eleven hours and fifty minutes between Sandy Hook and Cape Henry. She used only two thirds power and a steam pressure of 130 pounds. Thick weather was encountered but, despite this and deranged compasses, the vessel maintained an average speed of twenty-three knots at sea. Her progress through New York bay and Hampton Roads was necessarily slow. She will leave the Norfolk navy yard at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning and proceed to Washington after coaling at Lambert's Point.
